

Intake policy -

We accept animals who are being returned after adoption, surrendered by their owner, transferred from rural shelters, and animals found and in need of care. This is all based on availability of financial resources and foster homes. The Board of Directors reviews financials and makes decisions on intake on a quarterly basis.