

AWFP is an agency that removes dogs from local shelters and takes dogs in from owners that are unable to care for them and places them in private foster homes. We provide medical care, food, and supplies to the foster home until the dog is adopted. We advertise dogs for adoption, host adoption events at public places, and facilitate adoptions.