

AWFP is an agency that removes cats and dogs from local shelters and takes cats and dogs in from owners that are unable to care for them and places them in private foster homes. We provide medical care, food, and supplies to the foster home until the animal is adopted. We advertise animals for adoption, host adoption events at public places, and facilitate adoptions.