

SPCA of Pittsylvania County

INTAKE POLICY

The SPCA of Pittsylvania County is a foster-based rescue group without a shelter facility. When fosters are available, animals that can be adopted locally are fostered by our volunteers until they are adopted. We also intake dogs and cats that we transfer to other no-kill rescue organizations in other locations in Virginia, as well as other States where they will be adopted.