

We rescue dogs from situations of abandonment or neglect and work to pair them with responsible pet owners through a rigorous adoption policy. All animals who come into our rescue program are first approved by our director.